

WENDY HAYNES-BRITTON, PCC, LCDCIII

CHILDREN AND ADOLESCENTS
SUBSTANCE ABUSE
ANXIETY AND DEPRESSION
FAMILY AND DIVORCE ISSUES
MARITAL COUNSELING

Wendy Haynes-Britton is a Profession Clinical Counselor (PCC) and a Licensed Chemical Dependency Counselor III (LCDCIII). She received her bachelor's degree from Ohio University in Athens, Ohio and her Masters degree from Wright State University in Fairborn, Ohio. She has worked in the corrections arena, drug and alcohol arena, mental health arena and with people with mental retardation and developmental disabilities, as well as people with dual disorders for a combination of 24 years.

Wendy's counseling specialties include working with adults and children with an array of concerns including but not limited to mood disorders/depression, anxiety/phobic disorders, substance abuse, couples counseling, personality disorders, violence/trauma, stress management, anger management.